March 2021 - Row by Row Quilt

Theme this month: Heart's Desire

Hi Everyone,

It seems the days slip by more quickly in some weeks than others, but we all have the same amount of time:) Where we are, we keep wishing for rain while we watch other parts of our state getting downpours, and they are possibly wishing it would stop.

Each month our attention is drawn to what is happening in our world, we hear it on the news, through our TV's, radios & computers etc, and whilst it is important to be informed, sometimes we get distracted by it all. That said, this month I thought we could bring our thoughts and attention more to what it is we need or want in our world —

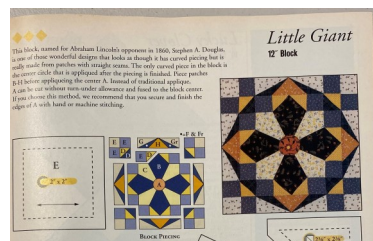

What comes to your mind when I ask "What is your Heart's desire" ?

Some find it difficult to answer that question, and of course your answers could be vastly different to each others and to mine, and that is fine.

So: I have decided to use "Heart's desire" as our theme for this month.

By thinking of what you truly desire, you could represent that in your row this month—you may want to play more sport, spend more time in the garden etc, or take the word Heart and create some lovely simple heart blocks, and there are many ways to do that.

Whilst looking for ideas for this month I looked up Heart in Jinny Beyer's book and found the block "Heart's desire" also called Little Giant & when I went back through some old magazines I found it in an old Quilter's Newsletter Magazine from 2003 with templates, so I think that will be for one of my rows. I am still thinking about the other :)

From the magazine
& Jinny Beyer Book plus

a few more ideas using hearts as the theme.

Have fun deciding on what your next row will be.
