

Cupboard to Creativity November Update 2023

Celtic Curves

Hi Everyone,

I don't know about you, but I have had a busy November, many of my groups have been having their last meeting for the year which includes our lovely shared Xmas lunches, and I have more of those in December.

I was also busy getting backing, wadding & bindings ready for 10 quilts.

I took advantage of KoolKats Quilting offer of free binding for November and had these 10 quilts completed.

Some are my challenge quilts, others are ready now to gift on.

I did manage to complete my Celtic challenge — I chose to stitch my Indigo Niche Xmas tree panel. I have not completed the project, but hope to do so before the end of December.

Now that December is here, it is time to complete projects, so that is the challenge for the month. This is also a time to attend the many end of year functions we all seem to have and prepare for the holiday season.

I wish you all a wonderful Christmas, be safe and take care of each other, make lots of happy memories, and enjoy any stitching time you may get.

Jan P.

Merry Christmas
